A program of public dances are to be held twice a week—on Wednesday and Saturday nights—at the McDonald hall, 1951 Carson street, H. J. Woods, manager, announced today. The first dance will be given Saturday night April 1. Woods has engaged the popular Princess Ball-room orchestra, which has been playing for the past eight years at a hall at 97th and Main streets, to furnish the music. Woods stresses the fact that no liquor or rowdiness will be tolerated at the entertainments.
